

Iceland
Liechtenstein
Norway grants

GDPR STATEMENT pursuant to Regulation (EU) no. 679/2016

The undersigned, _____, state that, in accordance with the requirements under Regulation (EU) 679/2016, hereinafter referred to as GDPR, I have acknowledged that “Ovidius” University of Constanta, with its official seat in Constanta municipality, 124, Mamaia Blvd., postal code 900527, telephone/fax: +40 241 606 407, +40 241 606 467, e-mail: rectorat@univ-ovidius.ro, legally represented by Rector Assoc. Prof. Dan-Marcel ILIESCU, PhD, as personal data controller, collects and processes my personal data through automated/manual means with the purpose of organizing and carrying out my mobility and the steps to follow thereafter.

I have acknowledged that my personal data shall be sent, by any communication means, to the following recipients: data subject (the undersigned); the structures within “Ovidius” University of Constanta; public authorities or other public or private, national or international entities, whose activities are associated with the Erasmus Plus Office of “Ovidius” University of Constanta’s activity or which have a direct or implicit relation to the instrumentation of the acts or procedures involved in the organization and development of my mobility and which, in turn, are personal data controllers. This information shall be introduced by the Erasmus Plus Office of “Ovidius” University of Constanta within its database under any printed (on paper) or electronic form.

According to Regulation (EU) no. 679/2016, I have acknowledged that I have the following rights: the right to restrict data processing, as long as it does not contradict the University’s legal attributions; the right to data portability; the right to free access to my personal data; the right to rectify or delete my personal data (“to be forgotten”), as long as this does not contravene the University’s legal obligations; the right to withdraw consent at any time, in the specific case in which data collection and processing is based on consent and no contractual or legal provision stipulating the obligation of data collecting and processing intervenes; the right to not be subjected to an automated individualized decision, including the creation of individual profiles.

I have acknowledged that I am required to provide the necessary information as to achieve the aforementioned purpose and that my refusal to provide this information or the erroneous and incomplete provision of these data shall lead to the impossibility of initiating or, as applicable, finalizing the act or the procedure by the University, as it may have as consequence the non-observance of legal regulations specific to the educational field.

Date: _____

Last and first name: _____

Signature: _____